

Hopscotching through Catholicism with Tricia Hoyt

Mondays beginning February 27, 2012

Choose your preferred time:

Monday Afternoons: 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm
or
Monday Evenings: 7:00 pm to 8:15 pm

No pre-registration necessary. Just come! Bring friends. No fee necessary. Freewill offering accepted.

Discussion topics of your choice, such as...

- “What do you mean, the Adam and Eve stories didn’t always refer to original sin? How come we always think they do?” Let’s discuss...
- “So, what’s the big deal with Vatican II? Wait... you have actual video footage of it going on, with all the behind-the-scenes stories?” Let’s discuss...
- “Could you tell me if there’s a special Catholic Bible we should use? What’s the difference between Bibles anyway?” Let’s discuss...
- “How could I understand the spirituality of the Rosary, Novenas, the Saints, and so on, in a way that is helpful to me?” Let’s discuss...
- “Sometimes I feel as if my ordinary everyday life isn’t at all ‘holy,’ so how can you say it is?” Let’s discuss...
- “What is our understanding of people of other faith traditions, either Christian or not, and how they are with God?” Let’s discuss...
- “Do we have to believe everything the Bible tells us? How am I supposed to make sense of it for today?” Let’s discuss...

Most of all,
bring YOUR questions about Catholicism, and let’s discuss...

P.S. It’s always a good idea to bring a Bible, if you can.
